Advisory Action

Part of Paper No. 19

Continuation of 5. does NOT place the application in condition for allowance because: Applicants lack direction in the specification for both making and identifying compounds in the unpredictable art of prodrug pharmaceutics. Employing function language to describe chemical structures fails to meet the written description and distinctiveness requirements of first and second paragraph.

Continuation of 10. Other: Applicants requested clarification concerning the status of new claimed added on 2/25/02. There was a typo in paragraph #3 of the final rejection. Claims 167-169 belong to non-elected group XX. Claim 170 belongs to non-elected Group XXII. Claims 167-170 are withdrawn for consideration. Claim 166 adds a new method of synthesis but has been added to the pending claims and searched. Applicants submitted two IDS statements on 2/25/02. The Examiner signed one as paper #11 and returned a copy to Applicants in the final rejection. A second IDS has just been located in the file. It will be numbered paper #16 and a copy returned with this action.
